EDITORIAL NOTES

Journal of Chinese & African Studies (JOCAS) is an international and interdisciplinary journal dedicated to scholarship and research in Chinese and African studies. Its aim is to publish high quality original manuscripts in Chinese and African languages, literatures, religions, politics, economy, history, culture, anthropology, societies, science, technology and many more. JOCAS is a peer reviewed open access journal. The scope of the journal includes but not limited to the studies in Chinese and Africa. Journal of Chinese and African Studies (JOCAS) is a peer reviewed and an open access journal which is indexed on Google Scholar. Abstract and full texts of all articles published in this journal are freely accessible to everyone after publication without any form of restriction. All articles published under open access can be accessed by anyone with internet connection.

GUIDELINES TO AUTHOR

The journal follows a yearly publishing schedule and welcomes original research articles in Chinese and English languages. An article can be sent at any time of the year in Microsoft Word format to jocasng@gmail.com. An article must not exceed 10 pages (5000 words) in a single spacing with 12-point Time New Roman font and any current referencing style. Submission of articles must be original, must not have been submitted elsewhere for publication, and author(s) must agree to grant the first editing/publishing rights to the journal upon acceptance. An article should include a cover page with the title, name of the author(s), institution/address, phone number and email address. The editor makes every effort in editing and correction to ensure the accuracy of the work. However, the editors and publisher are not responsible for any errors or plagiarism that may be found in the any article. Any views expressed in this publication are the views of the author(s) and are not the views of the editors or publisher.
